UM MEN'S CROSS COUNTRY TEAM
TO COMPETE IN IDAHO INV.

MISSOULA--

The University of Montana's 1980 men's cross country team will get its first taste of team competition Saturday at the University of Idaho Invitational.

Members of the UM team competed Saturday in the Pintlar View run at Warm Springs. The event was open to everyone and there were no team scores. The Grizzlies' Tom Raunig, Great Falls, Mont., won the 10,000 meter race in the 19-30 age bracket in 30:30. UM runners also picked up the third through ninth places. Greg Downing, Attleboro, Mass., was third, followed by Mike Brady, Spokane, Wash., Dave Gordon, Olympia, Wash., Bruce Browning, Forsyth, Mont., Kevin Dilley, Spokane, Wash., Paul Williams, Hamilton, Mont., and Dennis Normand, Missoula, Mont. In the 18 and under age bracket, Greg Strizich, Helena, Mont., was second. Guy Rogers, Billings, Mont., picked up a second in the 5,000 meters.

Coach Larry Heidebrecht said the first real test for the team will come at the Idaho Invitational. Among the teams expected to participate are Idaho, Washington State University and Bellevue Community College.
